

KEY IDEAS & KEY VERSE

1. Slaves had an opportunity to put the gospel on display through their respect and service to their masters.
2. Godliness with contentment is great gain.
3. Our doctrine determines the trajectory of our lives.
4. We have been entrusted with a deposit of truth to be invested for kingdom purposes.

... guard the deposit entrusted to you. 1 Timothy 6:3

-
- Final week reflection: What was the sweetest sound doctrine entrusted to you during this study and how are you seeking to invest it for His Glory?
 - Read 1 Timothy 6:1-2 & Colossians 3:22-24 – How can we put the gospel on display through our work?
 - How are life-taking and life-giving words contagious? Have you seen life-taking false doctrine make people spiritually sick? How have you ever seen life-giving sound doctrine make spiritually sick people well?
 - Is there any area of your life where you struggle to be content?
 - How do you think godliness coupled with contentment is great gain for you and others?
 - What does it look like for you to fight the good fight of faith where you live and work?
 - How can understanding stewardship help us as women to cultivate a culture of generosity in our homes and churches?
 - Share how guarding the sound doctrine entrusted to you to be invested is one of the greatest privileges of being a part of the Covenant Community.

Thinking Biblically: Share one or two ways that reading chapter six and studying days one–four helps you to think biblically. (See pp. 100-102)

Living Covenantally: Share at least one of your personal reflections from day five and record the reflections of those from your group in your book. (See pp. 103-105)

- Characteristics of the Covenant
- Church Descriptions
- Stop—Look—Listen—Lean

Share your stewardship prayer: Thank You, God, for entrusting me with _____

Give me the grace to invest it for Your glory and the good of Your Church in the following ways this week:

Record your prayers for your covenant community, church leaders, and personal prayer requests on p. 104 and then pray for one another.