

KEY IDEAS & KEY VERSE

1. Prayers for all people align us with the heart of God.
2. Godliness reflects the characteristics of our covenant God in the context of the community.
3. Godliness is displayed by the overflow of a woman's heart into the proper attire and attitude.
4. Our vertical surrender overflows into horizontal service to His Church.

But with what is proper for women who profess godliness—with good works. 1 Timothy 2:10

- What does prayerful dependence look like in your life right now?
- Share the impact Christ serving as your Mediator has had on you personally. (See p. 47)
- Reflect on the word “godliness” which is formed from two words: God and worship. It is a life totally devoted to God. Godliness reflects the characteristics of our covenant God in the context of the community. How have you seen godliness stand out in a corrosive culture?
- Our culture runs on an economy of externalization. We may seek our identity and worth in how we look or are perceived by others. Discuss how you have seen this to be true. What would it look like for you to ask: How can I glorify God today in my attire and attitudes? What would it look like for your life to be more about “look at Him” versus “look at me?”
- Read 1 Timothy 2:11-12 and the quote on the bottom of p. 45 from the Ad Interim Committee. Discuss how this passage can be challenging. Share examples of how you have seen women be life-giving leaders whose gifts have strengthened the church.
- Refer to the Covenantal Framework for Biblical Womanhood on p. 22. Now share one or two examples from pp. 48-51 on how you have seen women serve as a helper and life-giver in the home and church.

Thinking Biblically: Share one or two ways that reading chapter two and studying days one–four helps you to think biblically. (See pp. 47-51)

Living Covenantally: Share at least one of your personal reflections from day five and record the reflections of those from your group in your book. (See pp. 51-53)
