

Six Building Blocks for Wives of Elders

---

1. Identity — Mirror

A mirror reminds us to consider how we see ourselves and where we find our identity. As wives of elders, our identity is not defined by our husband's role, the expectations of others, or what we accomplish in ministry. Our true identity is found in Christ. We are beloved daughters of God, redeemed by grace and being transformed into His likeness.

Scripture: 2 Corinthians 3:18; 1 John 3:1

2. The Church — Building Blocks

Just as individual building blocks come together to form a structure, God is building His people together into a spiritual house. Each believer has a place and purpose in the body of Christ. We are not meant to stand alone but to be joined together, with Christ as our cornerstone, growing in unity, love, and service.

Scripture: 1 Peter 2:4–5; Ephesians 2:19–22

3. Calling — Key or Open Hands

A key represents the doors God opens for us to love and serve Him in the places He has called us. Our calling is not limited to being an elder's wife. God has entrusted each of us with unique relationships, gifts, and opportunities to serve His kingdom. We are called to faithfully walk through the doors He opens, trusting Him to equip us.

Scripture: Ephesians 2:10; Colossians 3:17

4. Gospel Partnership — Puzzle

A puzzle reminds us that every piece has a unique shape and purpose, but the pieces fit together to create something greater. In marriage and ministry, husbands and wives bring different gifts, perspectives, and strengths. Gospel partnership is not about doing everything together or having identical roles. It is about encouraging one another, working toward a shared purpose, and helping each other grow in Christ as we serve His church.

Scripture: Philippians 1:3–5; Ecclesiastes 4:9–10

5. Servant Leadership — Baton and Washcloth

The baton reminds us that leadership is a responsibility entrusted to us, not a position to possess. We are called to equip, encourage, and invest in others, passing along what God has entrusted to us. The washcloth points us to Jesus, who washed His disciples' feet and demonstrated that true greatness is found in humble service.

Scripture: John 13:12–15; 2 Timothy 2:2; Mark 10:43–45

6. Mission — Globe or Compass

A globe reminds us that God's mission extends beyond ourselves, our families, and our local churches to the ends of the earth. A compass reminds us that wherever God places us, our lives are to be directed by His purposes. Whether across the world or across the street, we are called to participate in God's mission by loving our neighbors, making disciples, and sharing the hope of the gospel.

Scripture: Matthew 28:18–20; Acts 1:8; Jeremiah 29:7
